B3. As you may know, utility-scale solar farms are large solar energy projects that are placed on land and have enough solar panels to power communities and big businesses. Knowing that, I'm going to read you a series of statements. Please tell me if you agree or disagree with each one. [IF CHOICE] And do you strongly agree/disagree or just somewhat?

B4. Now I'm going to read you a series of proposals California policymakers could consider, and I'd like to know whether you support or oppose each of them. Here's the first... [ITEM]. • Allowing schools, farms, and businesses that have solar panels to sell the power they generate back to the grid for the full value of that electricity .....	61%	32	4	3	*	93%	7

• Reforming the permitting system to create a uniform set of standards and streamline the process for approving utility-scale solar farms ...	43%	44	9	4	1	86%	12

IRA. As you may know, in 2022, Congress passed a law that created tax credits, rebates, and other incentives to encourage the use of more clean energy like solar in the United States. CS1. Now I'm going to read you two statements about recent increases in the price of electricity in California. Please tell me which one you agree with more, even if neither is exactly right.

Some people say... Customers who don't have solar panels are subsidizing those who do. Solar customers don't pay their fair share of costs to maintain the electric grid, causing rates to increase and making California less affordable to live in. ....	24%
Other people say... Utilities are blaming solar power, but their math doesn't add up. Increasing our use of solar power brings prices down for everyone. The real reason that electricity prices are going up is utility company overspending and mismanagement, and increased wildfire costs. ....	76
