COMMUNITY IMPACT

Bascom Maple Goes Solar

Bascom Maple in Acworth installed a 500 kW solar array. The farm, which produced Coombs Family Farm maple syrup, said the solar array fits in well with the goals of the farm and will lower costs.

Somersworth Landfill Turns Into Solar Array

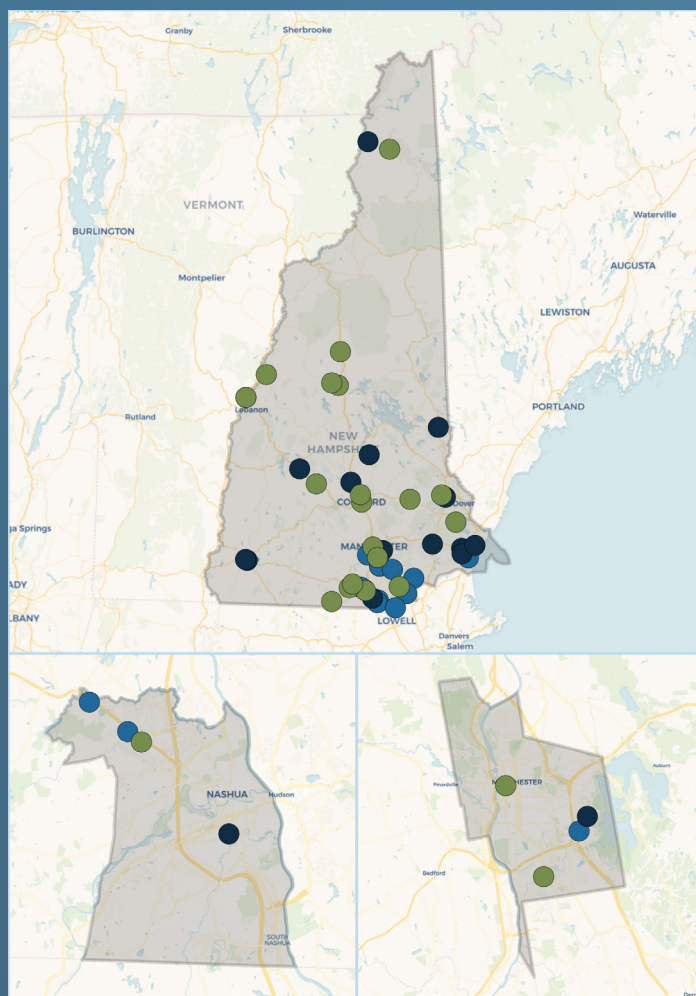

Somersworth added a 2.6 MW solar array onto a former landfill. Prior, the landfill had little use, and now it is providing electricity to the city and $2 million in economic benefits.
